J. Keet Lewis has an extensive background in operating companies spanning several industries. Since 2000, Keet has focused on his entrepreneurial passion for management consulting, strategic marketing, new product development, organizational design and career coaching. Keet is a popular public speaker, trainer, mentor and CEO Coach.

Keet has focused a significant amount of his consulting time on new technology products, working with inventors to bring their products to market nationally and internationally. Currently, Keet is the Chairman of the Board of a medical technology company, PhotonX Holdings, Inc. Additionally, Keet advises a company with a suite of energy technology products and services that could have a transformative national security impact in the very short term.

Keet recently completed a successful 5 year project in the international energy industry, where he has obtained 9 exploration concessions (1.3 million acres) for unconventional gas exploration (seeking shale gas and coal bed methane) in the Republic of Poland. This was really a return to his family business, which for three generations has been involved in the oil and gas production industry. He is also involved in a fiber optic cable project in Bulgaria. Keet formerly served on the Board of Salem Media Group SALM (NASDAQ). Salem Media Group is America's leading radio broadcaster, Internet content provider, and magazine and book publisher targeting audiences interested in Christian and family-themed content and conservative values. He is also involved in several other technology companies and was a co-inventor and patent holder in the swimming pool industry.

In 2005, Keet, Wayne Nance and Bill Hendricks came together to write a book, for Real Life Management, Inc. The book originally published by New York publisher Simon and Schuster released in March 2007 as Real Life Management. The book was re-released as The 3-Minute Difference in 2012 by Mission Books. Keet is the Executive Producer of two training programs: The Stewardship of Our Citizenship (DVD), for Heritage Alliance and You Can ALTER Your Life Without Changing Who You Are (6 CDs) for Real Life Management, Inc. The later is a powerful behavioral tool used by life coaches and mentoring organizations. His reach into the faith-based community with their proprietary 3-Minute Survey is more fully described at: www.HisGiftsHisGlory.org Keet's latest project is the minting of a commemorative gold coin with images and symbols that represent his 40 plus years of walking with Christ.
